Name of Project/Cause: 75 Plantation Workers in Monaragala

Completion Date: 13th September 2021

Value: LKR 187,500

No. of Beneficiaries: 75

Location: Mallewa, Bibile, Monaragala

Brief Description:

75 plantation workers from Mallewa, Bibile, Monaragala, have been isolated due to a rise of COVID cases in the area, and now face an island-wide lockdown as well. As this community has a majority of women, they are badly in need of sanitary and hygiene items. As they depend solely on plantation work at the estates, they are all currently without work. Also, as COVID cases continue to rise in the area, they are facing extended lockdown/isolation. Therefore, they were badly in need of assistance.

We provided each family with a pack of dry rations, amounting to Rs. 2,500 per pack, which we believe would be able adequate for 1.5 to 2 weeks. The pack consisted of dry rations such as rice, dhal, cooking oil, soya, soap, tea, sugar, milk powder and biscuits for the children. Another donor donated sanitary napkins, so we were able to spend all Rs. 2,500 on dry rations.
